About us...

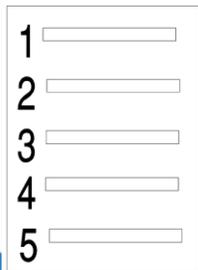

Our work is to help people with learning disabilities keep healthy.

We work with Health workers like Doctors, Nurses and Managers. We also work with carers, families and people who have learning disabilities.

We help them to understand about the special needs of people with learning disabilities.

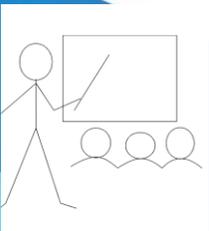

We help to get better health care.

Some of the things we do:

Help Doctors with lists of people who have learning disabilities.

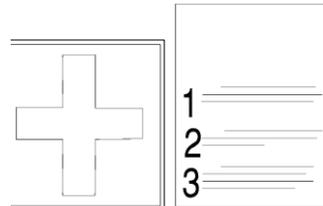

This is so the Doctors know who needs more help.

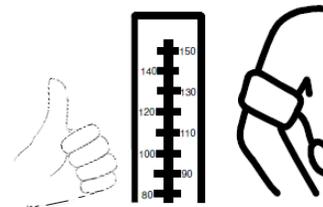

Help to train health Workers.

Help to make health information easier to understand.

Helping with health action plans.

Helping Doctors to do health checks.
